Avoiding Identity Theft

Fight Back!

Deter identity thieves by safeguarding your information.

- Shred financial documents and paperwork with personal information before you discard them.
- Protect your Social Security number. Don't carry your Social Security card in your wallet or write it on a check.
- Don't give out personal information on the phone, through the mail, or over the internet unless you know who you're dealing with.
- Never click on the links sent in unsolicited emails; instead type in a web address that you know. Use firewalls, anti-spyware and anti-virus software to protect your home computer; keep them updated.
- Don't use an obvious password like your birth date, your mother's maiden name, or the last four digits of your Social Security number.
- Keep your personal information in a secure place at home, especially if you have roommates, employ outside help, or are having work done in your house.

Be alert to signs that require immediate attention.

- Bills that do not arrive as expected
- Unexpected credit cards or account statements
- Denials of credit for no apparent reason
- Calls or letters about purchases you did not make

Inspect regularly:

- Your credit report - the law requires that the major nationwide consumer reporting companies (Equifax, Experian and TransUnion) to give you a free copy

- of your credit report each year if you ask for it.*
- Your financial statements - review financial accounts and billing statements regularly, looking for charges that you did not make.
