If you want to make better business decisions, software and other technology tools should be key parts of your business strategy.

This newsletter has articles with hardware tips and cost saving ideas.

PC Sleep Mode & Unplugging Your Flash Drives - PC World

Sleep Mode and "Safely Eject"

This article gives a good argument for putting your PC in "sleep" mode at night instead of shutting it down. It also explains how to check the settings on your flash drive, since it may not be necessary to always use the "safely eject hardware" function when unplugging.

Tips to Cut Your Cell Phone Bill - PC World

Know Your Usage to Avoid Overpaying

If your cell phone is costing you a fortune, here are some tips to possibly cut your bill. Every dollar you save can be used for something else, right?
