Tepato Systems offers software consulting services to help small business owners and non-profit groups.

If you want to make better business decisions, software and other technology tools should be key parts of your business strategy.

This newsletter has articles with tips for making better use of your mouse buttons and also a little known feature in Excel spreadsheets.

Better Uses for Your Middle Mouse Button - PC World

Free Utility Allows Custom Settings for Mouse Buttons

This article gives a good overview of how to use a free utility called X-Mouse. It allows you to set custom commands for your mouse buttons, which is especially useful for that middle scrolling button that a lot of us don't use.

Using Autofilter in Excel - Microsoft

One of Our Favorite Tools - Autofilter in Excel

If you work frequently in Excel spreadsheets and you're not familiar with Autofilter, you are missing out on a really useful feature. See the article below for directions and enjoy.
